

Art For Learning, LLC. presents

Mom's Guide: How to make your child's visits to The Metropolitan Museum of Art GREAT

For Parents/Grandparents;

- Learn special tips and places to visit at the Met
- Learn how to make your visits exciting and memorable for your children
- Turn them ON to museum visits not OFF

"Meet me at the Metropolitan Museum of Art"

Lecture & tour, break for lunch.

Date: Tuesday June 19th, 2012

Time: 10:30 to 2:30

Start the day at the group entrance inside the Metropolitan Museum. We will begin our lecture and tour in the Uris Learning Center. Tour will be led by Sheryl Intrator Urman, artist and art lecturer.

She will take you to many of the outstanding permanent exhibition sites throughout the galleries including Egyptian, Greek and Roman, Medieval, Modern, Oceanic, Islamic, American, Chinese, and European Art.

She will take you to the most monumental and memorable sites at the Met for kids. She will teach you how to make your trips to the Metropolitan Museum exciting and stimulating for the kids using techniques to engage your children while they learn.

She will teach you how to make the visits to the museum fun so they want to return.

Arrive at the steps of the Metropolitan Museum at 10:30

Brown-bag your lunch or bring money; you will be free to leave us for the lunch hour or stay with us in cafeteria.

For Parents/Grandparents: $86.00 per person (museum entrance fee included)

* Minimum trip enrollment of 5 people must be met by June 14th or trip may be cancelled.

To Register: Call Sheryl Intrator Urman at 201-503-9796
or email at Artforlearning@yahoo.com