

The Complete Picture: Art and History

Modern Art Leading up to Cubism

New Leonard A. Lauder Cubism Collection

Metropolitan Museum of Art

Monday December 15, 2014

Art For Learning, LLC.

With Sheryl Intrator Urman,

Artist, Curator and Art Lecturer

Meet us at 11:00 am as Sheryl Intrator Urman, our docent for a private tour, takes us back in time. She will give us a background talk and tour of the Modern Art Collection as we view highlights of the Met's massive collection in a new light and learn the development of Modern Art leading up to Cubism.

Cubism, the most influential art movement of the early 20th century, still resonates today. It destroyed traditional illusionism in painting and radically changed the way we see the world. Sheryl will help us understand how this collection was developed and why it is so important. She will help us uncover the mysteries of the 'funny shapes'!

We will have a quick lunch in the cafeteria downstairs – on your own to choose from the extensive offerings of all kinds - but hoping to sit together. (or bring your own lunch)

Then it is on to the new, blockbuster exhibit of the Leonard Lauder Cubism Collection, which displays the vast holdings by this interesting philanthropist for the first time! We will have an Audio Guide (no docents permitted). And Sheryl on hand to answer questions and silently guide us to the major works.

THE COMPLETE PICTURE: $ 55

INCLUDES: Background talk, museum admission, docent tour and lunch.

Please email me (Artforlearning@yahoo.com) to reserve a space and send a check made payable to:

Art for Learning, LLC.

SEND CHECK TO: Art For Learning, LLC., 330 Broad Ave., Englewood, NJ 07631