TOTAL ART EXPERIENCE

With Sheryl Intrator Urman, artist and art lecturer

When Modern Art was New

Metropolitan Museum of Art

Wednesday, July 2nd, 2014

The painting above may be 'old/familiar' to us – but meet us at 10:30 am as Sheryl Intrator Urman takes us back in time to when it was 'Modern' as our docent for a private tour as we view the Met's massive collection in a new light and learn the development of Modern Art.

What is modern art? How did it start? Why did it start? Is it complicated? She will try to answer these questions as she introduces us to the evolution of Modern art, exploring the outside factors like the industrial revolution, discoveries in science and the changing cultures. We will focus on Modern Art from its beginning in the 1880s to the early 20th century including Picasso, Matisse and Mondrian.

Brown bag your lunch. After lunch, we will take a peak at the exciting roof garden instillation – truly a very 'modern' experience. We will then enter Central Park, where we will create our own modern art project, all supplies are included.
