

PURIM ARRIVES WEDNESDAY NIGHT pages 3, 28, 43, 44
 THE SWEET SOUNDS OF TZIPPORAI SHALOM page 8
 GETTING READY FOR THE ISRAEL FILM FESTIVAL page 12
 SPECIAL ROCKLAND COUNTY COVERAGE page 20

FEBRUARY 27, 2015 84 years
 VOL. LXXXIV NO. 23 $1.00

NORTH JERSEY JewishStandard JSTANDARD.COM

About Our Children

Top Choices

MARCH 2015

ARTS, PERFORMANCE AND MUSIC CAMPS

Art for Learning, LLC
 Englewood area, NJ
 artforlearning@yahoo.com
 http://www.artforlearning.com/
 201-503-9796
 Art grades 1-10
 Fashion grades 4-11
 Teen Travel grades 7-11
 Weekly Programs: June 29-
 August 28

Programs include various age appropriate levels of Impressionist, Modern, Colonial and Victorian Art. Other programs are taught for specific age groups, like Art of China and Japan, Mosaic and Glass Art, Princess Experience. All art programs are taught based on history and sociology, music and poetry of time is sometimes introduced. Excerpts from books are required for the Jewish Immigrant Experience, and Greek and Roman Art, which are based on Percy Jackson and the Lightning Thief book. Younger kids programs focus on dinosaurs and fish, African zoo animals and farm animals. Each art program includes two trips to related venues like the Metropolitan Museum followed by art lessons in Central Park, Victorian mansions, Ellis Island, etc. Fashion programs begin from design concept through retail, with trips to the garment district showrooms, meetings with fashion designers, marketing, and merchandising experts, lectures at FIT, and more. Kids have the chance to create fashion-related artwork and products. Teen Travel includes five days of visits to NBC Studios, Empire State Building Skyride, Brooklyn Bridge, South Street Seaport, Madame Tussauds, and more! Discount offered for early enrollment.

Art for Learning Promises Lots of Color

Sheryl Intrator Urman, founder and director of Englewood based Art for Learning, is marking her 18th year leading youngsters on intellectual, cultural and artistic journeys in her summer programs, which takes youngsters from 1st to 11th grades into the worlds of princesses, colonists, fashion, impressionist artists, New York City, and so much more. Art for Learning has a menu of 26 different art classes and seven different fashion programs in which youngsters, learn, travel to the New York City great museums, draw, paint and create wonderful works of art as they learn about a topic in deep, creative and hands-on way. For more information, Art for Learning, 201-503-9796, www.artforlearning.com.