FRIDA KAHLO: Art, Garden Life Bronx Botanical Gardens

Meet us at 11:00, let's journey together to the world of Frida Kahlo, transported to her colorful, native Mexico and her engagement with nature in her work.

Our Garden provided docent will guide us through our stroll through the Conservatory which has been re-imagined as her garden at the famed Casa Azul, her house and studio, where we will see how the powerful inspiration of the beauty and diversity of native Mexican flora was integral to her work.

Over a private lunch, Sheryl Intrator Urman, will fill us in on the life and times of this complicated woman: her physical struggles, her loves, her tempestuous relationships and the revolutionary time period. We will get the clues to her life helping us understand the self-expression seen in her art.

Sheryl will have created the complete picture before we continue our day viewing many original paintings and works on paper in the Mertz Library – a solo presentation of her not seen for many years in the U.S.

Time to take the tram on your own and enjoy the other areas of this beautiful National Historic refuge including the Peggy Rockefeller Rose Garden which should be a sea of warm color – red, white, yellow and pink of nearly 700 flowers!

THE COMPLETE PICTURE: $85

INCLUDES: Garden admission, docent tour, Sheryl's lecture and lunch.
