

A Day at the MOMA for your child
Limited to five

The Complete Picture: Art, History and Lunch
Matisse and his Cut – Outs plus highlights
Museum of Modern Art
Thursday January 22nd, 2015

Art For Learning, LLC.

With Sheryl Intrator Urman,
Artist, Curator and Art Lecturer

Time: 10:50 to 4:00

Sheryl will act as our docent and our tour will begin with a group talk about Henri Matisse, his life and why he is famous as an artist.. We will learn not only what propelled Matisse to devote 14 years to this new art form, but also about the art world around him at the time. Sheryl will tell us about highlights of his career. Then we will enter the Cut – Out exhibition where Sheryl will lead the group and tell about the art work and help personalize Henri Matisse the man and artist.

We will leave the Moma for an kosher lunch. Kids can bring their own or eat at Pizza Da Solo, Kosher restaurant, at your own expense.

After lunch we return to Moma, where we will visit some iconic works including Van Gogh's Starry Night and Monet's Water Lilies among others.

Minimum of 4 people required.

Reservations must be made by January 18th or trip may be cancelled.

Transportation may be available.

THE COMPLETE PICTURE: $100.00

INCLUDES: Background talk, museum admission, docent tour and supervision for lunch.

Please email me (Artforlearning@yahoo.com) to reserve a space and send a check made payable to: Art for Learning, LLC.

SEND CHECK TO: Art For Learning, LLC., 330 Broad Ave., Englewood, NJ 07631

More information will be needed, once reservations are made.

To Register: Call Sheryl Intrator Urman @ 201 503 9796 or email at Artforlearning@yahoo.com