Two Tours:

JERUSALEM 1000-1400,

and

The Highlights of the Permanent Collection leading up to year 1,000

Metropolitan Museum of Art
Wednesday, December 28, 2017

Meet us at the Met: at 10:45 when I will be your Private Docent for 2 tours. First I will I will prepare you for this amazing exhibit, by a acting as your private docent, first by introducing you to the time period which brings us to year 1000, and up to Medieval Times as we weave through the galleries holding artifacts from the cultures of the Byzantine, Armenian, Persian, Coptic and the Europeans.

Over lunch on our own but sitting together in the Cafeteria, I will prepare you for the Journey.

This Mile-Square city of Jerusalem from 1000-1400, was truly the 'Center of the World' as so many maps will reveal! Just picture the pilgrims from the three major faiths and the merchants and craftsmen selling relics and souvenirs to bring home to friends! Lots of Gold! They could not find Antique Selfie sticks, but there was a way to be included, we shall see! We will visit this block buster exhibit of over 200 art and artifacts which show the different cultures and mixing of faiths during both times of peace and war.

THE COMPLETE PICTURE: $70

INCLUDES: Museum admission, two (2) docent tours and Audio-guide (Note that the MET requires everyone to pay group admission/even members).
