Van Dyck: The Anatomy of Portraiture is said to be one of the most comprehensive exhibits ever organized for a portraitist.

We meet at 11am to prepare for our visit to the Frick Collection. Sheryl Intrator Urman, will introduce us to the Flemish Artist, Sir Anthony van Dyck who became the leading court painter for England's King Charles. Sheryl will put us into the mindset of the world of the early 17th Century. We will learn about his importance, his life and loves, several interesting facts about some of his sitters, as well as the influence he had on painting. Learn why Van Dyck was a favorite portraitist able to depict the inner life (real or imagined) of the sitter.

She will also discuss the exhibit and several components on view. Appreciate Art in Context – the Total Art Experience.

After lunch will go together to the lovely Frick Museum. Although docent tours are not allowed, Sheryl will be able to quietly guide us to the highlights and be there to answer any questions. Time to enjoy the full beauty of this Collection and the mansion it occupies.
