The Complete Picture: Art, History and Lunch

Referring to: Percy Jackson and the Olympians, Lecture/tour followed by art workshop Metropolitan Museum of Art

Yeshiva Week

Tuesday, April 26th, 2016

Meet me at the Met at 10:45. We will begin our lecture and tour about Greek and Roman Art lead by Sheryl Intrator Urman, artist and art lecturer. Learn about Greek and Roman Art by referring to the book “Percy Jackson and the Olympians”. We will invite you to share your knowledge of mythology and memories about the book with us. Follow Percy’s steps in the museum through characters seen in statues and other art forms at the Met. We will also learn about the art and art forms housed in the Greek and Roman Galleries. Learn how Roman art sprung from ideas and art forms taken from the Greeks. See how the Romans added their own stories and art forms by studying the museum’s collection. Learn about the culture of the two civilizations.

We will lunch in the Cafeteria, Brown bag it or buy your own lunch.

After Lunch, We will visit the European Sculpture and Decorative Arts Atrium and begin our Art workshop. We will share stories and myths about these amazing statues. You will be given instructions about creative writing exercises and a drawing project, very interactive. We will see that mythology does continue.
