TOTAL ART EXPERIENCE

With Sheryl Intrator Urman, artist and art lecturer

Rodin and 'Everything you wanted to know about Sculpture'

Metropolitan Museum of Art

Monday, November 20, 2017

Meet me at the Met: at 11:00 when Sheryl Intrator Urman, artist and art lecturer, will be our Docent and take us through Mets vast Galleries. Put on your walking shoes; we will be traveling through almost every gallery, touching upon every continent where civilizations flourished. We will be traveling back in time to ancient Egypt, Greece, Rome, Middle East, China, Japan and all of the Americas, searching for sculptures. Some will be iconic and others you may think idiotic. Some sculptures are made from materials we are familiar with like stone or wood, while others are made of feathers and blood. We will also see some made of very precious materials. All will tell some kind of story, i.e.: culture, artist or craft. We will really be walking the museum, and therefore the world - giving the Complete Picture, and setting the stage for the new Rodin exhibit.

After lunch together in the cafeteria (not included/something for everyone), our tour continues in the new Rodin exhibit of nearly 50 of his works, featuring the iconic sculpture, The Thinker. Sheryl will show us the connections to what we have just seen. We will stop at some contemporary artists who Rodin admired, including friends like Renoir, Monet and more.

Lunch is in the Met cafeteria with a wide variety of choices from Salad to Sushi (not included/sitting together).

Day begins at 11am.

INCLUDES: $70.00: Museum admission, two (2) docent tours.

(Note that Met requires everyone to pay group admission/even members)
