The Complete Picture: TOTAL ART EXPERIENCE

With Sheryl Intrator Urman, artist and art lecturer

AMERICANA: Life and Times

American Wing - Colonial Art Galleries

and

Behind the Scenes private visit of Ratti Textile Center

Metropolitan Museum of Art

Thursday, February 22, 2018

In the spirit of upcoming President's Day - we will meet at 11:30 when Sheryl Intrator Urman, artist and art lecturer, will be our Docent and take us through the American Wing and Colonial Galleries. She will weave the period rooms and furnishings with paintings and sculptures to create an overview of the life and times of the Colonial period. Learn about the sitters as well as the artists. See how the development of the United States can be understood through art.

After lunch together in the cafeteria (not included/something for everyone)

We will complete our day with a special private showing at the Antonio Rattie Textile Center and Reference Library, where Sheryl has selected several Samplers and textiles that she and a Center docent will discuss. Learn about the Ratti Center - one of the largest and most advanced Museum Textile centers and their work in the study, storage and conservation of fabrics.
