TOTAL ART EXPERIENCE

With Sheryl Intrator Urman, artist and art lecturer

Chagall and the Russian Avant-Garde

Jewish Museum

Wednesday, December 12th, 2018

Art for Learning, has obtained special permission from the Jewish Museum for Sheryl Intrator Urman to give a private talk, when the museum is closed, exclusively for her group!

The Complete Picture - Chagall, Lissitzky, Malevitch: The Russian Avant-Garde in Vitebsk, 1918 - 1922

We start our day with a lite dairy brunch (11:00am) and a talk by Sheryl Intrator Urman, artist and art lecturer, about this tumultuous time after the Russian Revolution. Art and artists don't exist in a vacuum - The Complete Picture of the life and times, the influences on the artist sets the stage for understanding. Artists revolting from the Traditional standards set by the far reaching Paris Art Salon. Where new ideas of emerging artists like Picasso and Matisse fueled the creativity of Marc Chagall. Chagall and the Russian Avant-Garde, focuses on the work of three of its iconic figures: Marc Chagall, El Lissitzky and Kasimir Malevich. Chagall opens an art school... and the students go wild! In Post Revolution Russia flying goats weren't enough for these Avant Garde students – they had their own ideas! And politics mix with art and a creative chaos ensues. Chagall paintings and more... How should Art serve the People?

The Complete Picture! Sheryl will be our docent for this exhibit of over 150 works from sketches to paintings to sculpture.
