

Art For Learning, LLC.

TOTAL ART EXPERIENCE

With Sheryl Intrator Urman, artist and art lecturer

The Colmar Treasure

A Jewish Legacy

Hidden Medieval Treasure

At The Cloisters

Metropolitan Museum of Art:

The Cloisters

99 Margaret Corbin Drive

Fort Tryon Park

Monday, October 28, 2019

The Cloisters.... how many of you haven't been here yet?...or not recently? Or if you joined us for the amazing Heavenly Bodies costume exhibit - join us again for a fascinating tribute to Jewish artistry in this uniquely Christian setting.

Meet at the Cloisters: at 11:00 when Sheryl Intrator Urman, artist and art lecturer, will be our Docent will lead us for a 2 hour tour discovering the highlights of the Cloisters and this direct-from-France exhibit of hidden jewels. For more than 500 years, a small cache of jewelry and coins lay hidden within the walls of a house in Colmar, France. Secreted there in the 14th century and discovered in 1863, these treasures comprised of fantastically jeweled rings and brooches. The precious possessions of a single family! Note the inscription mazel tov on a ring - a link to the Jewish community, who were brutally scapegoated and put to death when the Plague struck the region in 1348 - a tribute to Jewish artistic heritage and its role in art and society in medieval Europe. Our experience in days of yore will also include highlights of the culture and folklore, we will touch upon the role of women, mythology, medicine and more. See the 'old stuff' in a new light. And of course the Unicorn tapestries.

OPTIONAL LUNCH: After my tour, you may wish to lunch at the lovely New Leaf restaurant in the hidden 'treasure' of Fort Tryon Park after my tour. Just a short walk from the Cloisters. Or bring your own lunch and have a coffee and snack in the Cloister's Garden, after my tour.

Yes, Men are welcomed! Day over by 1:00 PM, unless you go to lunch!

$80: Includes a 2 hour guided tour and Met admission

Please email me (artforlearning@yahoo.com) to reserve a space and send a check made payable to: Art for Learning, LLC.

SEND CHECK TO: Art For Learning, LLC. 330 Broad Ave., Englewood, NJ 07631.

