Women of the French Impressionists

Including the Woman who collected their Art

Metropolitan Museum of Art

Tuesday, April 21st, 2020

Meet me at the Met: at 10:45 when Sheryl Intrator Urman, artist, curator, teacher and art lecturer, will be your private Docent and take you through the Met's vast European Art Galleries. She will start with the quality of the French Academic Standards with works of Jean Auguste Dominique Ingres and others. She will explain scandals, censorship and hypocrisy surrounding art of French artist Gustav Courbet, which sparked such controversy that it ignited other artists to question authority. She will show us how Edward Manet used his artwork to defend Courbet. And How Manet continued to push the envelope so that the Rebellious Rebels followed.

Lunch together in Cafeteria. (not included/something for everyone).

After lunch, we will continue to learn about the Women who acted as their models, as well as patrons. We will learn about the Impressionists, and why they are considered Rebels to the established art world of Paris.

Day begins at 10:45am ends about 2:30

INCLUDES: $90.00: Two (2) docent tours and Museum admission

Or: $75: Two (2) docent tours WITHOUT admission.
