

Art For Learning, LLC.
With Sheryl Intrator Urman
Artist, Curator and Art Lecturer

Complete Picture:

When Modern Art was New
Metropolitan Museum of Art

Thursday, April 30th, 2020

Meet me at the Met: at 10:45 when Sheryl Intrator Urman, artist and art lecturer, will be your private Docent and take us through their Modern Art Galleries. The painting above may be 'old/familiar' to us, I will introduce you to Academic Art and sort of take you back in time to when it was all just beginning to become 'Modern'. We will weave our way through the Met's massive collection and view it in a new light and learn the development of Modern Art.

What is modern art? How did it start? Why did it start? Is it complicated? I will try to answer these questions as you are introduced to the evolution of Modern art. We will explore the outside factors like the industrial revolution, discoveries in science and the changing cultures. We will focus on Modern Art from its beginning in the 1880s to the early 20th century including Picasso, Matisse and Mondrian.

After we lunch in the Cafeteria. (not included/something for everyone).

We will continue on to a later period where we will see Jackson Pollock's famous splatter paintings, see and question the rise of minimalism and check out some POP Art by the very famous Andy Warhol and more.

Day begins at 10:45am ends about 2:30

$85.00: INCLUDES: Museum admission, two (2) docent tours.

Please email me (artforlearning@yahoo.com) to reserve a space and send a check made payable to: Art for Learning, LLC.

SEND CHECK TO: Art For Learning, LLC. 330 Broad Ave., Englewood, NJ 07631.

