Two Tours:

KLIMT and the Women of Vienna's Golden Age, 1900-1918
and
Women in the Golden/Gilded Age

Neue Galerie
and
Metropolitan Museum of Art
Wednesday, November 9, 2016

Meet us at the Met: at 10:45 , when we will be Privileged to visit the Neue Galerie on a day Closed to the Public with one of their best docents, specially selected by us! She will introduce us to their special exhibit of Klimt's sensual portraits of women as embodiment of fin-de-siecle Vienna. The influence of fashion design among society women is illustrated by dresses, hats and accessories created just for this exhibition. You may have already been introduced to Klimt and his Women in one of my previous lectures, but there is always more to learn and who can resist his amazing paintings? Also some of these fashions were created for his special fashion designer friend or Lover? You can decide!

Then we continue our journey back in time with a visit to the MET- after lunch in the cafeteria (not included/sitting together).

I will take you on my own tour and act as your private docent to Europe, to meet more fancy ladies of the Gilded Age through portraits/furniture/jewelry and more. The Gilded Age was fun!

JOIN US FOR A THE COMPLETE PICTURE OF THIS ERA: $80

INCLUDES: 2 Museum admissions, two (2) docent tours (Note that the MET requires everyone to pay group admission/even members).
