

When it comes to parenting, there's only one...

PARENTGUIDE

TEENS

Art For Learning, L.L.C.

Art For Learning offers weekly art enrichment programs for children in grades 1-11, starting June 24th running through August 30th. At Art for Learning in Englewood, seeing is believing! With 27 types of unique weekly programs to choose from. The art programs are in depth introductions to subjects which could opens your child's mind to a lifelong pursuit of the arts. Students don't realize how much culture they are absorbing, because they are creating and learning in a summer environment. Art for Learning offers three levels of Impressionist Art and five levels of Modern Art, 2 kinds of Colonial Art, 2 kinds of Victorian Art, Mosaic and Glass, Greek and Roman with focus on Percy Jackson book, Art of China and Japan, Medieval, Jewish Immigrant Experience, Princess Experience. Younger kids programs focus on Zoo Animals, Farm Animals, and Dinosaurs and Fish. Each Art program includes two trips to related venues like the Metropolitan Museum, followed by art lessons in Central Park, Victorian Mansions, Colonial Estates, Ellis Island, Museum of Natural History, Zoos and Farms. All programs have been created to make lifelong memories for the children and to expose them to concepts and ideas they would have never otherwise experienced. Art makes learning fun. The programs are often historically based. In existence for over 21 years, lessons are taught by artists and teachers who are passionate about art education and allows children the chance to create artwork they can really be proud of and treasure. Educational tours give children a chance to explore the world of art in new and exciting ways. So call Art for Learning LLC today and get your children ready for a fun and exciting experience they'll never forget. (Their Fashion Program is written about in the Fashion section.)

Listed in Bergen County Children's Day Camps & Summer Programs