TOTAL ART EXPERIENCE

With Sheryl Intrator Urman, artist and art lecturer

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 23rd

The Cloisters with a Twist!

Although the vast collection is comprised of mainly religious art, Sheryl will focus on what isn't so obvious – the role of women and a glimpse into Jewish life in this Medieval and very Catholic world.

Women in the Middle Ages occupied a number of different social roles, mostly at a tremendous disadvantage. A woman's situation could vary greatly depending on her wealth, social standing and religion.

Learn about the expectations placed on women and the realities they lived with, through the art and architecture presented in a quiet corner of a busy city. See several Stained Glass Windows in a new light. Be re-introduced to the legend of the Unicorn and more. Visit the gardens planted according to plans found in medieval documents and poetry. Learn the magic of the herbal gardens.

We will start our day in Englewood at Sheryl's home for a slide presentation and talk, followed by a Dairy Kosher lunch. We have a van ready to take us to the Cloisters and back for a visit of the buildings and Gardens.
